UNDER THE COVER

The theme of the yearbook is "Under the Cover." There have been many changes that go along with this theme. More students are included because each one of the one thousand students are important. The students may change yearly, but they are still special. The yearbook has taken on a new look, the design is of a more professional outlook. These qualities and changes make up a better yearbook for the Norton High School years of 1984-1985.

SUMMER '84

As the last bell of the school year rings, many students shout with joy for the summertime is finally here! Having three months with nothing to do is great! Right? Well, most students spent their time by earning money, laying out in the sun-trying to get a savage tan, or just by taking it easy.

Loyal Oak Lake Park, Loyal Oak Pool, and Griffis Pool Park seem to be the most popular places in the area that people spend their time. Or even going on vacation is a great way to spend your time off from school. Three months go a lot faster than we want, and then it's back to the books.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

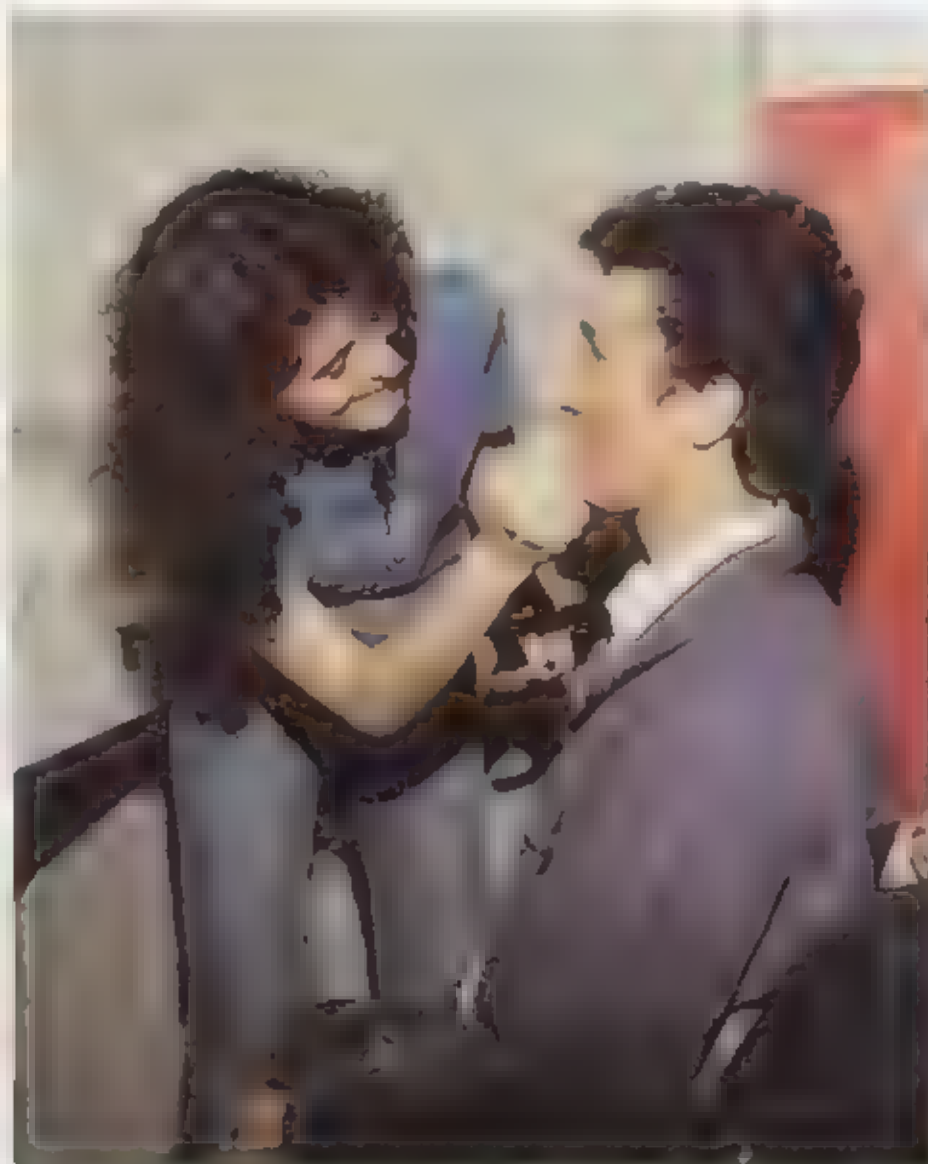

I think everyone in the school should take the time to attend the plays and see what great acting talent we have at Norton, I thought this one was great," expressed Sophomore Polly Raden.

"You Can't Take It With You" was presented by Norton High Drama in fall. The show ran the eighth, ninth, and tenth of November with the curtain time being 8:00 p.m.

Rather than just explain the plot if you missed the show, it might be interesting to touch on the spirit and pride of the people who put it together. As stated by Senior Tracie Lohan, "The play was not only enjoyable in itself, but it was enjoyable to see how the cast members worked so well together." This comical, warm, and entertaining production required hours of hard work. After weeks of working together, those who were involved grew very close, and had one main goal in mind, entertaining their audience. With the direction of Mr. Vail, the students had reached their goal.

MARCH TO NATIONALS

The marching band directed by James Adkins and James Berlyoung started out their competition season with only third places. When the band went to Regionals in Columbus things were changed. They made finals and placed tenth. The winning streak of the band continued when they competed at Field. A first place award was earned over all other bands. This was the first year that the band had the opportunity to go to Grand National Competition at Indianapolis. They came home with a satisfaction of having placed 31 out of 49 bands.

The band's drum majors were Chris Nettles and Kelley Rine. They directed the following songs: "Fanfare Christopher Street," "I Can't Believe It's True," "Give It Another One," "Here, There, and Everywhere," and "Finale Christopher Street."

The colorguard purchased new uniforms and used make-up to highlight that new look. Streamers were used on the field to add to the special effects that the guard already provides.

Doug McLaughlin had a drum solo near the front of the field, Patti Hoover riding her unicycle during the show, and Drum Major Chris Nettles' acrobatic act all added a new touch to the band's competition season.

HOMECOMING

On Saturday, September 22, NHS students danced the night away at the annual Homecoming Dance held in the Norton High Auditorium. Over 240 students, teachers, and alumni dressed semi-formally and spent the evening listening to the mellow rock music played by the band North Star.

Two weeks before Homecoming, Pep club started putting up signs and making announcements about the time and date of the dance. Seniors Bob Cliney and Pam Benya sold tickets which were $5.00 for a single and $10.00 for a couple. Profits went first to the paying of the band and the remainder of the money went to Pep club. TEACHER LOOK-ALIKES

During the week of Halloween, well who knows what you may have seen. You see Monday October 29th through Friday November 2nd the students indulged in what they called 'SPIRIT WEEK'. Each day had a different theme designed to help get the students excited about the Victory Bell game against

Wadsworth which was scheduled for the end of the week. Spirit Week which was created by pep club was to say the least interesting, fun, and just plain silly. Thursday some students chose to dress like their favorite teachers. Like the students below

LET'S GET FIRED UP!!

To enhance school spirit, the cheerleaders devote their time and energy to motivate the school. They work hard to liven the crowd during pep assemblies, football games, and basketball games.

Stephanie Ocepek defined cheerleading as "a way of showing school spirit through movements, words, and humor."

Lisa Yeager agreed by saying, "Cheerleading is a lot more than just yelling in front of a crowd."

Besides attending camp, the cheerleaders sold the ads for the football program, had a car wash, and sold "panther paws" to promote spirit.

Tracy Ballinger summarized cheerleading as "A great way to develop a big mouth and a big smile."

Fads & Fashions Now, Forever

"Fashion is individuality. It has no bounds. Anything you wear has some place in the fashion world. Go for it, experience the new . . ." as expressed by Mechelle Mesko. This year fads and fashions seem to have exploded out of the closet. The aura of fluorescents have brought new meaning to color. The "men's look" has brought ties, and oversized clothes out of the dark. Hats have become a definite main stay in the fashion world. Stone washed and double colored jeans are now in style as well as a variety of boots and shoes. With the warmth of spring and summer, come lace, frilly feminine things and an array of patterns. Fashions are heading towards the more sophisticated and debonair, but definitely different. So "join the bandwagon." It's super fun!

THE ODD COUPLE

If you wanted to enjoy an exciting evening at the theatre, you certainly did not miss the drama club's production of The Odd Couple. Directed by Sandra Moore and Assistant Director Jane Hickey, the show was a smash. "It was the most entertaining play I have seen in high school; I really enjoyed it", said senior Chris Nettles.

The play by Neil Simon was held March seventh, eighth, and ninth in the auditorium. Curtain time was eight o'clock. Mr. Ken McCray was in charge of set design and construction while Mr. Henry handled the technical side. "It was really great how well all the props and sets worked out, a lot of hard work was put in behind the stage", expressed junior Bernie Nutter.

The small sized cast enabled them to work closely together and really develop their characters. Though the cast was small, the play was not small on laughs. "I have never had as much fun working on a play as I did with this one. There was so much talent on stage and everyone worked really well together (especially Oscar and Felix). I will miss being involved with the plays and all the great things that go along with them", reflected senior Leslie Mendelsohn.

THE MOCKINGBIRD LIVES

"I was happy . . ." commented Director Mr. Vaill on To Kill a Mockingbird, the story of Jean Louise Finch, better known as Scout. She lived in Maycomb, Alabama during the 1930's.

It was a time when most people were prejudice against anyone who was different. Scout's father, Atticus, is appointed to the court case of Tom Robinson. Atticus not only fights a court battle but a town set in their ways.

During the course of the play, Scout becomes more respectful towards her father. She discovers he is willing to fight a battle he knows he has already lost, just to defend a principle in which he believes. In the words of Polly Raden, "Plays are real learning experiences, and by the last performance, everyone has been through so much together, it's like a big family."

SHOWING OFF

"I feel that being on Teen Board really expanded my knowledge in the fashion world. I believe that every young girl should have the opportunity to express her ideas in fashion in the way she interprets "fashion" herself," said Senior Tara Saurer. Many of the girls here at Norton are participating in modeling one way or another. One of the most popular ways is to be a member of Teen Board. Sponsored by Rolling Acres Mall, and other major department stores, this Teen Board gives the girls a chance to meet new people and also learn the ropes of the modeling business.

The girls go through summer workshops where they learn how to care for their face, how to apply the right make-up for their skin, and lots of hair care tips. Seniors Chris Nettles, Tara Saurer, and Melinda Koch, Juniors Tracy Flickinger and Jenny Roberts are Norton High School's representatives for this year's Teen Board. Besides modeling for Teen Board, many of the girls look forward to the annual Cherry Blossom Festival, held May 15-19, to try and use their good looks and talents to gain the title of Cherry Blossom Queen.

EXPLORING TALENTS

Sheila Rosenthal looks up at a sketch and looks forward to being in the high school herself in a couple years.

If you were lucky enough to attend the Art Invitational, you would have been amazed at the amount of fine workmanship collected and displayed in the high school gym on May 18, 19, and 20. Visitors enjoyed the talents from elementary, middle, and high school students. Subjects varied from frogs to landscapes to outer space creatures. Mediums ranged from paintings to pencil sketches to sculptures. The judging was by teachers from various schools throughout Summit County.

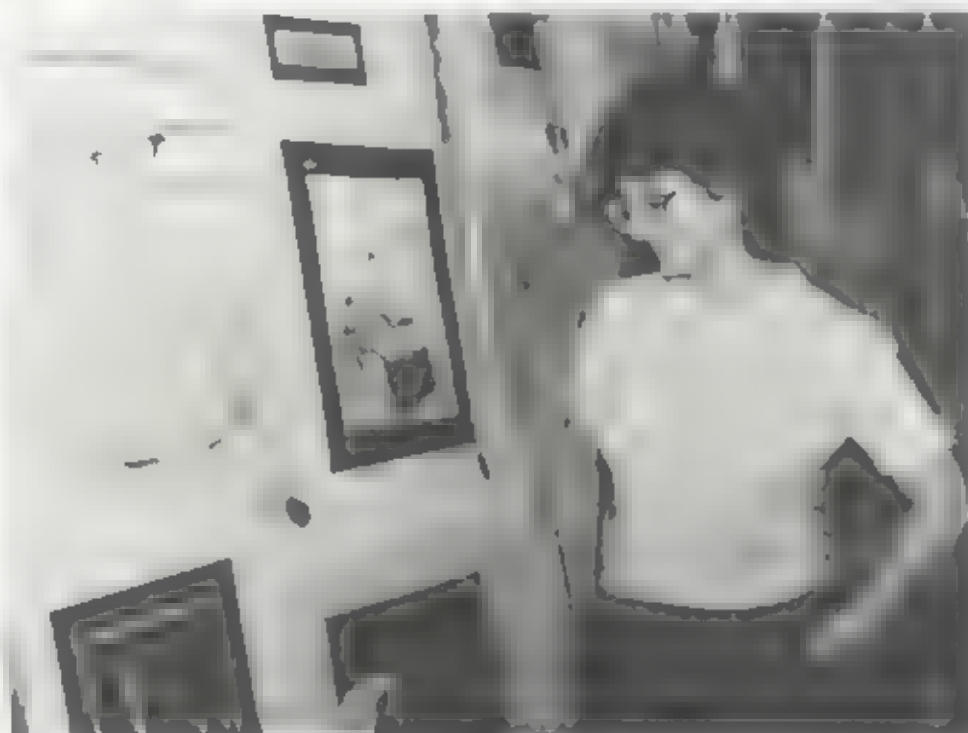

The talents of John DeRose won him Best of Show and the Zella Boedecker Award.

A Magical Evening

The theme for the annual Christmas Formal was "Mistletoe Magic" and the dance was held December 15 in the school gymnasium. Christmas Formal, also known as Winter Formal, was a huge success. Ninety-three couples attended the Tri-Hi-Y sponsored dance. Advisor Mrs. Whitt helped the girls prepare for the awaited evening. She supervised the selling of the tickets, she helped at the workshops to make the beaded candy cane favors given to attending couples, and she chaperoned at the dance along with other faculty members. All aspects of the dance were successful. Pre-sale tickets cost $10 and the club sold 77, and they sold 16 more tickets at the door. With this money and previous money, Tri-Hi-Y members hired the rock band RUNAWAY to perform for the evening. The Norton Band Boosters and Tri-Hi-Y members provided refreshments, and Sylvart Studios photographed couples who wanted to preserve memories of the formal. Senior Tammi Anderson said "This was a great dance, it will hold stronger memories than the others because it's my last Winter Formal." Advisor Mrs. Whitt commented on the band by saying she heard only good remarks rather than the usual bad complaints. Winter Formal will give lasting memories to all who attended this "Mistletoe Magic" evening.

A Chosen Few

Arranged by the Modern Criticism Class, the Fine Arts Assembly was held in honor of exceptional students in areas such as writing, art work, academics, and music.

The Advanced Choir sang two selections near the close of the assembly, and the Symphony Band played two pieces during the course of the assembly.

Given an award for designing the Nortonian cover was Kathy Gabelman. Other related yearbook awards went to Pattie Totten for selling the most ads and Vicki Horracks for her secretarial help.

"The Clown" was judged as the best poem submitted to the Literary Journal. Its author, Michelle Kashasha, read her winning poem.

George Georgiadis rounded out the assembly with his dramatic interpretation of "Becket or the Honour of God" by Jean Anouhi.

A DREAM GOES ON FOREVER

From Queen Pam Benya & King Larry Lambright

On Saturday, May 4, 1985, Akron University Gardner Student Center was filled with fun and a lot of dancing.

Students danced the night away to the music played by the band "The Looker".

Also the evening's festivities included the Prom court and the crowning of the Queen and King. The court consisted of Maryann Saus, Gina Hrabusa, Dave Eby, Gary Ballinger and Queen Pam Benya and King Larry Lambright.

After Prom ended, students had the opportunity to attend After Prom which was sponsored by the After Prom Committee. Activities included bowling, video games, pool, and the movie "Revenge of the Nerds".

"Honor Society is an organization for those that excel in scholarship, leadership, service, and character," said Mr. Wilfong when asked about the group. The inductees and the members have to maintain a 3.4 grade point average to be considered for induction. After they have been considered for induction, they are evaluated by a committee of teachers who make the final choice for induction. After they have passed the evaluation, a long and formal ceremony is conducted with last year's members taking charge of the function. The members of last year will make a short speech on the qualities that are needed to be the organization; they announce the names of this year's inductees giving each inductee a candle, which they light at one of the two candleabras that are located on either side of the gym. Then they give a certificate and a rose to each. All new inductees then rise to be sworn in. They must swear loyalty to their school and the ideals of the National Honor Society. During the course of the year the Honor Society organizes the buying and selling of senior t-shirts.

Student Government

By sponsoring three informal dances, the student council helped boost the spirit throughout the school. Not only did they sponsor those dances, they were the driving force behind the magazine sale. They also helped other clubs by supplying funds for special activities.

Riding since he was 9, Craig Krosnick finished 3rd in his class in the Competition Riders of America Circuit. The tracks he's tackled include Norwalk Raceway, Malvern, Honda Hills and Ohio International.

MONEY MAKERS

Working after school and on weekends is very common for many high school students. Many are saving for college while others just want to make a few extra dollars. "Since I've been working at McDonalds, I've made over $300, and I'm sure that will come in handy when I go to college," said Junior Karla Anich. On the other hand, Senior Wayne Losey stated, "I don't like work because it takes up too much time and I really get bored, but I need the money." Opinions seem to vary from worker to worker. "I enjoy having extra money, but it's hard to maintain grades, be involved in school activities, and keep a job at the same time; therefore, I'm glad my job is only seasonal," stated Senior Leslie Mendelsohn, who worked as Santa's helper as well as being the Easter Bunny.

Informal Fun

"Informal dances are a great way to get together with your friends," stated sophomore Chris Moran. There was no need to show up dressed up and with a date for these dances, they were just a little bit of informal fun. You came with your friends casual and comfortable clothes were very acceptable.

There were four of these dances held, the first being the Halloween Dance on November third. Students were encouraged to wear their most creative costumes and many did. Next a dance was held on February 16 to celebrate Valentine's Day. There we crowned a King and Queen, seniors Gary Ballinger and Barb Sabo were voted to hold those positions. The St. Patrick's Day Dance brought out the Irish in everybody on March 15. Last we were flung into spring on April 19, with the Spring Fling.

The dances were sponsored by different groups throughout the year, the most dominant being Student Council. Other groups that helped out with the dances were the Forensic Society and Senior Steno. The dances were always decorated and refreshments were always provided. They were held in the small gym and DJ's provided the music. They started at eight p.m. and lasted till eleven p.m. The ticket price was usually three dollars and drawings were held with the winners receiving prizes.

There was also a dance for the freshman and sophomore classes. It was held at the Varsity Teen Center on March 22. The students enjoyed their class activity and the music they danced to. All in all, the informal dances were a lot of fun for everyone.

COMMUNITY LIFE

Bottom right The Olympic Torch run went through Akron this summer

Many things have changed in our area this past year. A new McDonald's went up in downtown Norton, President Reagan was re-elected, and the Olympic Torch Run went through Akron. Many things go on in our community everyday and get no notice. Firemen, policemen, and hospital workers aid us in emergencies. Teachers are giving their time and energy to educate the dwindling number of students. Even though Norton is a very small area, it is an active place to live.

O.W.E.

O.W.E. is a job related project. Students attend classes half of the day and go on the job the other half. Students in this program are required to take English and a Social Study. The headline gives it away—O.W.E. is Hands On Experience. One gets to know his career choice and if he will be content with it. O.W.E. is just not a job program. It's an adventure. O.W.E. has taken several field trips throughout the year. They have included several breakfast meetings where some community members have been invited to speak to the group.

Many students try to excel in academics throughout their school careers. The final class ranks given to seniors are held by them throughout the rest of their lives. The top ten seniors are as follows: Shawn Stamp (1) with a grade pt. of 4 088, Julie Novkov (2) with a grade pt. of 4 071, Sue Longshore (3) with a grade pt. of 4 030, Eleanor Reljin (4) with a grade pt. of 4 029, Sue Ritzman (5), Chris Nettles (5), and Ramesh Kakarala (5) with a 4 000 grade pt., Michelle Mayer (8) with a grade pt. of 3 970, Ron Pavlovich (9) with a grade pt. of 3 945, and Deanna Hanna (10) with a grade pt. of 3 942.

The D.A.R. Good Citizen Award is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution to promote good citizenship in American youth.

The Award of Distinction is given to those students who meet the standards set by the State Board of Education in Ohio. George Horton was a recipient of this award, but could not be present to get his picture taken.

Students qualify for National Merit by achieving a superior score on the P.S.A.T., S.A.T., and by completing the National Merit Scholar application.

The Ohio Academic Scholars are determined by a mathematical combination of cumulative grade point average and A.C.T. scores. The top five scorers from Norton are submitted to the Ohio Board of Regents for scholarship consideration.

The Scholar-Athlete Award is sponsored by the United States Army Reserve for those students throughout the nation who demonstrate the highest achievement in both academics and athletics.

The Chrysler Award is sponsored by Chrysler Corporation. Its purpose is to recognize and honor good citizenship in young people.

Serving Others

Junior and senior girls who enjoy helping others and being actively involved in the community, enjoy being members of Tri-Hi-Y. The group is one of the most exciting and active clubs that Norton has to offer.

Tri-Hi-Y has the unique pleasure of planning the Christmas Formal and choosing its theme, along with decorating for the dance.

The group also has the opportunity to serve the community by helping the needy of Norton. As Mrs. Whitt, their advisor states, "Our main goal is to help others and learn the value of helping others."

A guest speaker on the subject of rape visited the group and presented a discussion on how to cope with rape and try to prevent it. Pam Benya says, "The Speaker was very informative and explained some helpful hints to aid ourselves in the case of rape."

Gettin' the Scoop

Everyday during 5th period the Torch Staff works busily researching, reporting, and editing the school newspaper in order to reach their deadline. The Torch Staff is made up of reporters, sports writers, artists, sales managers, editor and the advisor, Miss Muffet

The Torch is self-supporting, using the sales of the newspaper and the soliciting of ads to raise money. To buy a 1 year subscription it costs $1.50 and just for 1 paper without a subscription it costs 75¢. Usually 300 copies of Torch are sold each edition

FUTURE NEEDS!

Do you know anything about living alone and surviving in society today? Many people live alone and take care of themselves. Taking home ec helps students in their future needs.

The home ec class studies many educational areas throughout the year. Foods and nutrition seem to be one of the more popular favorites in the class. During this section, they get to cook a variety of good foods, and the reward is eating them. Learning how to cook brought in money for the home ec class. "Catering" is a key word. They had cookie and candy orders during Halloween and Christmas holidays.

Childcare and Development is another major need for men and women. A dozen Norton playschool students, ages 4-5 years old, came to the high school for two weeks, 3 periods a day. This unit was run just like a day care center. The students prepared lesson plans and did the actual teaching.

Home-ec also studies clothing, consumer management, housing, and family/human relations.

All work and no play doesn't apply to this class. The home ec club meets once a month, and contains 20-25 active members. They have bowling banquets and gift exchanges.

Home ec is a good class for everyone. All of us will be on our own one day, and whether we're single or married, we will all need to know how to cook, sew, take care of children, relate to people, and manage a household. Males as well as females need this class for knowledge to use the rest of their lives.

"We do a lot more than people think. We put a lot of 'pen' in our work," commented baseball stat, Tracy Ballinger.

This year's stats have shown an enormous amount of patience and dedication towards the sport, the players, and the coaches. They compiled statistics, on individuals and teams, which determined the winners and losers of the games, the season, and awards. Therefore, their job was important. It required knowledge of the sport and alertness towards action of plays.

"Although most people don't know this, being a stat requires more than just flirting with the players," confessed soccer stat, Lisa Cich.

In Front of the Footlights

BEHIND THE SCENES Valerie Pavlovich helps prepare Sandy Mackura for the next exciting performance.

BEHIND THE SCENES In the play, You Can't Take It With You, George Georgiadis, without words, shows his emotions.

"I really like being on stage and hearing the reactions of the audience. If they enjoy the show, I feel great," declared Leslie Mendelsohn.

Entertainment best describes the Thespian Club. The goals seem to produce amusing plays like "You can't take it with you" performed by this group on November 8, 9, and 10 starting at 8:00. By working hard and putting much effort into their work, their goals are fulfilled. Chosen by Mr. Vaill and Mr. Schoonover the following are the club officers: President—Miss Deanna Harris, VP—Mr. George Georgiadis, Secretary—Miss Megan Mast and Archives—Miss Leslie Mendelsohn. Last year at the banquet they were appointed these positions and will hold them the following year.

"Because of forensics, I can speak more freely in front of others," explained a member of the forensics team, Lisa Spangler.

The forensic team honors Norton by traveling over many other school districts and competing for Norton as a group. The team placed fourth out of twenty-four schools on January fifth. In addition, at Sandy Valley, the team placed second out of sixteen schools. And placing seventh out of thirty-six schools at Akron North, the forensics team continued their winning streak through the year. Also, here at Norton, the team won the championship on Saturday, January twelfth, coached by Mr. Vaill and Mr. Schoonover.

Members also compete individually. For Lincoln Douglas was Julie Novkov with the outstanding record of Norton (4-0) first, Glen Oak (4-0) second. Competing with Julie for the Lincoln Debate was Remesh Kakarala, N.C. Hoover, (4-0), first and Norton (4-0), second. Another participant of the Lincoln Douglas Debate, Lopa Parikh, had scores of Louisville (4-1 power), fifth season record 18-11.

In Dramatic Interpretation, George Georgiadis, placed first at Canton South, Norton (tie) and Glen Oak, and second at Sandy Valley and New Phila. Steve Smuseck placed first at Norton (tie) and Glen Oak, third at Sandy Valley and fourth at New Phila. Leslie Mendelsohn took fourth at Norton and sixth at Glen Oak.

For the Humorous Interpretation there were two great, "funny" students, Phil Sims and Deanna Harris. Phil, taking much pride in his laughter, took first at Sandy Valley and Glen Oak, second at Norton, third (power) at Louisville and fifth at Akron North. Deanna, with a great win at Glen Oak, took home second for Norton.

With Oratorical Interp., there was an outstanding young student, Valerie Pavlovich at Canton South (placing sixth power, fifth at New Phila, and at Glen Oak took sixth). Diane Russel finished with a win of second at Glen Oak and sixth at Sandy Valley.

In prose poetry, Susan Lee made Norton proud by placing second at Norton, fourth at Glen Oak, sixth at New Phila, and third (power) at Canton South.

Leigh Ann Bennet made her way up by taking fourth (power) at Louisville and sixth at Akron North.

With a great team in duet acting, Michelle Kashasha and Dan Junchich had a great year, placing third at Sandy Valley, fourth at Norton, and finished by taking the trophy home for first against Glen Oak.

Karen McCray placed third at Sandy Valley, sixth at New Phila, and fourth at Glen Oak, in Extemp.

Biology

Honorary

Biology Honorary, a club for those who have a special interest in the life sciences or who plan a career in biology, was headed by Miss Mullett. The club elected their officers in September. They are Steven Smiseck—President, Kathy Gabelman—Vice President, and Shelly Judge—Secretary.

Steven Smiseck said, "I represent an organization that provides leadership for those interested in biological sciences." Kathy Gabelman said, "I am considering a career in biology." Shelly Judge, who is considering a career in the biological sciences, said, "Not only will my club experiences help me in the future occupation, but I will also learn how to take minutes of meetings, which will help me in other ways." The club officers help plan meetings and make arrangements for field trips. On one such trip to Silver Creek Metropolitan Park, they compared the ecosystems of the wooded area and the meadow land area noting the changes in vegetation and the types of animals.

Students Action for Education

SAE, short for Students Action in Education, is a club of students who are thinking of teaching as a career. The students in the group go down to the Primary, elementary or stay at the high school helping teachers during their study halls. They help make bulletin boards, assist students that need extra help and basic everyday teacher assistant work. The clubs officers, which were elected at the end of last year were; President Tammy Daugherty, Vice-President Lisa Fuller, and Treasurers Mike Hose and John Lohan.

Activities that were held were a trip to a haunted house, going canoeing, and their annual banquet, which was held at the Brown Derby. Selling jewelry and other fund raisers helped pay for most of their activities. This years members were T. Adkins, B. Cox, J. Daugherty, J. Falconer, K. Ferrell, C. Francis, S. Friedt, L. Fuller, J. Groves, M. Hose, C. Hull, J. Kashasha, J. Koby, C. Koch, M. Koch, M. Linn, J. Lohan, K. Meredith, A. Parcell, M. Petit, M. Reese, D. Russell, T. Saurer, L. Sheppard, and R. Reese.

Making Music

"As I develop my voice, I develop myself. I enjoy working together to produce beautiful music. It gives me a special feeling of fulfillment and pride," reflected Senior Julie Novkov when asked about her inner feelings about being a member of the choir.

The Mixed and Advanced Choirs are motivated to learn more about music, rhythm, and timing, and other related skills. Mrs. Mianowski, Director and Advisor, helps them grow and expand their knowledge in music and singing. She says, "I hope students will learn how to sing better, increase their musical knowledge and above all gain an enjoyment from singing because of their experience in Choir."

Freshman Eric Miller said, "Choir is fun and a great class. I like to sing and have a great product come from hard work."

"I like Choir because the Choir Director is a great conductor," said Junior Aleta Cromer.

"In Choir we have lots of fun," said Sophomore Ellen Mackin, "trying to sing and learn the new music, such as The Hallelujah Chorus and Hold on to Your Dreams."

The officers are President, Deanna Harris, Secretary, Lisa Yeager and the three representatives from both choirs. The duty of the officers is setting up activities outside of the school. The officers are elected by nomination and ballot by the two choirs. Nomination is done in the first nine weeks.

Fund raisers include fruit sales, bow sales, cheese and sausage sales and other items. Last year over $60 000 was raised from both choirs and the bands. The money is used to clean uniforms and robes, to buy new music and folders.

Middle The choir, caroling on a December night in Williams Memorial Park, share the spirit of the season.

LATIN, SPANISH

Everybody loved to go to toga parties. Although parties of that kind were not permitted here, the Latin club came as close to one as anyone could get. For their initiation to get into the club, they had a "toga day" where the new members wore a toga all day.

They also had a Christmas party which was held at Pres. Kathy Krunich's house, and a football game against the Spanish club. They beat the Spanish club with a score of 36-30.

However, being in the Latin club touched each member in a different way. Senior Kathy Krunich expressed her feelings about the club. "Being the President of the Latin club has meant a lot to me. There are so many special people that I have met because of this club that I would have never before. I just hope I brought a little more happiness to their lives like these people have brought to mine."

AND FRENCH CLUBS

Blue Spanish eyes were not the only characteristics of the Spanish people. When you think of Spain or the Spanish people, it might have reminded you of sombreros, dancing, and lots of fun! That was what the Spanish club was like.

The Spanish club helped the needy by making food baskets, and sponsored a school dance.

At Halloween, 51 members gathered together and went to haunted houses. Before going out to get scared, they had dinner at Parassons.

Competition with the other clubs was fun for the club members. Even though they lost their football game to the Latin club, Junior Paul Easterling felt that, "The football game was real fun and exciting with plenty of good competition and friendly rivalry."

Who could resist eating French fries, French bread, or even French cheese? David Henderson felt that, "The French club was a good learning experience because it helped you to understand the French culture."

Also Freshman Ed Azer said, "I think the French club is fun because it is a fun way to learn about France by having a Christmas gift exchange where all the gifts had to be of French origin."

Learning more about the French culture and having fun was what the French club was all about!

THE GUARD LIVES ON

Enhancing the performance of the Marching Band, the colorguard strived for individual perfection. They practiced hard to "keep their form" and to perform to the best of their ability.

A major part of their performance was devoted to the total visual effect of the band show.

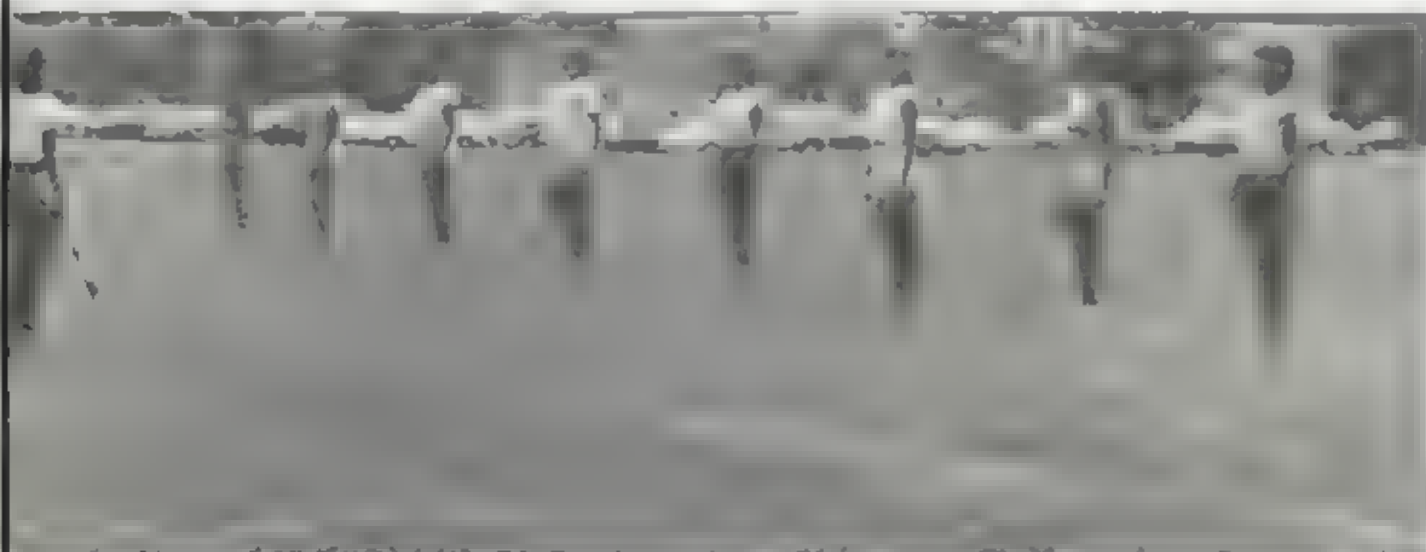

The colorguard consisted of fifteen pikes and nine rifles.

"It was fun!" said senior Britt Toney, summing up her last year of colorguard.

Our Future Office Workers

Intensive Office Education, or IOE, is a class composed of twenty men and women who plan on getting office-oriented careers when they get out of high school.

The financial accounting teachers are Mrs. Fuline and Mrs. Mang. The stenography teachers are Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Villers.

There were eleven juniors and nine seniors.

The group attended an overnight conference in Salt Fork. They also had a banquet where awards were handed out to exceptional students.

THE BAND PLAYS ON

Paul Smith, a student teacher in music, had this to say about band, "You get out of it what you put in." As seventh period rolled around, the underclassmen refined their playing so they can get into Symphony band in future years. Jim Berlyoung and Paul Smith kept law and order while directing musical compositions that were performed at the Christmas and Spring concerts.

French horn player Tammy Arnold said, "Symphony band is great!", about the band directed by James Adkins.

The atmosphere of the bandroom buzzed with excitement every morning, first period as the air filled with tunes and inspiring lectures by Mr. Adkins.

The band practiced such pieces as "Themes from Nutcracker Suite" and "Festive Songs of Christmas", which were played at the Christmas concert. The band also performed at the Spring concert, and at Graduation.

NORTONIAN 85

Pica ruler, tri-copy sheet, and print-trimmer; they may not mean anything unless you have been on the Nortonian or yearbook staff. The Nortonian staff took pictures, wrote stories and captions, and made designs for every page.

Mrs. Moore was the advisor. Assisting her was Editor Pattie Totten, who was assisted by Mechelle Mesko. At summer camp they and staff member Steve Totten planned a new and professional design format. "Even though we have not followed all of our plans, this is still the best yearbook ever," said Pattie Totten.

The theme for the 1984-1985 yearbook was 'Under the Cover'. It was developed with the idea that there was a new design and that more people were included. Kathy Gabelman made the cover design.

Injuries were a major factor in the season. Senior Rob Walker suffered severe injuries early in the season. Senior Mike Milkovich found it impossible to play due to an injury suffered in a car accident.

PRACTICE PAYS OFF

"We were awesome!" confessed Alan Baughman.

Coached by Jeff Data and Scott Cantrell, the J.V.'s compiled an impressive 6 and 3 record.

Sean Farns said, "It was great having a winning record despite all our disadvantages."

He was referring to a lack of people for the J.V. squad, because of a large Varsity roster.

"I think J.V. football was a great way to get experience for next year," stated Paul Easterling.

Experience for Varsity was not the only thing the J.V.'s acquired. Many found that along with being competitive, having fun was essential to victory.

"We went out with the attitude to have fun, but we always took our game seriously," emphasized Dave Polacek.

A .428 SEASON

"I think we had good coaches but we had bad luck," stated James Hatula

"Bad luck" came in the form of losses to Wadsworth, Revere, Field, and Green for the Freshmen Football Team. But, Head Coach Dan Winkler and Assistant Coach Mark Milkovich did lead the team to a 3 and 4 season. Quarterbacked by Chris Gable, the Freshmen beat Highland, Hudson, and Copley in impressive games, outscoring their opponents 71 to 12. Through it all, sportsmanship, unity, and fun were key factors.

"We won as a team and lost as a team," emphasized Jeff Kinsland

GREAT TEAMWORK

The varsity volleyball team had a winning season last year with an overall record of 18-4 and a league record of 13-1. With that kind of record and determination they went all the way and won the Suburban League Championship which was led by Head Coach Mrs. Bryant. Special awards went to Becki Underation, Julie Douglas and Jenny Roberts for First Team All Suburban. Best All Around Player went to Becki Underation. Super Spiker went to Jennifer Hutchison. Suburban league M.V.P. was Julie Douglas. Most Improved Player of the Year was Jill Brownlee.

"Bump, set, spike" proved to be the philosophy for winning as the J.V.'s compiled an 18 and 5 record for the season.

Kathy George described the season by saying, "I think the team has a lot to be proud of."

Teamwork was emphasized during the season, along with having a great time.

"Everyone had fun," said Jody Brownlee, "we liked working together."

One of the positive aspects of J.V. Volleyball was gaining needed experience for Varsity. Polly Raden stated, "I liked J.V. a lot. It was good experience that will help me next year."

"I think the 84/85 season was spectacular because of the exceptional talent and our great coach," commended Forward Robbie Holderbaum.

The J.V.'s were "spectacular," compiling a fifteen and five record overall, entitling them to share second place with Wadsworth.

Coach Chaboudy explained the success of the team by saying, "We had a great group of individuals who didn't like to lose."

Leading the team in scoring was Bryan Dennis with 209 points for the season. The leading rebounder was Mike Baker with 156. Finally, Beau Kepler led the team in assists and steals with 78 and 41 respectively.

SHINING SEASON

Just like Custer at his last stand, the girls' varsity basketball team kept up their fighting spirit to the last seconds of the season. "There was a lot of talent on the court this year, but nobody had as much spirit as our girls did," reflected senior George Georgiadis.

The team coached by Miss Moomaw had a very successful season. With 15 wins and only 5 losses behind them from league games, they did a superb job at their tournament games.

Though it was a tough battle, the girls really pulled it out and won the District Championship. They also made it to regional competition making them one of the top 16 teams in the state. "I thought that the season was a very rewarding experience," said sophomore Jennifer Hutchinson, "winning District Championship made everything worthwhile. Hopefully next year we will go all the way."

As the locker room grows tense, the players are eager to play. Some of the players have sweaty palms and others are just rubbing their hands together. Mr. Paolano, the girls' coach, gives a little pep talk and arouses their moral. Before they get out and play the players say a little prayer, then lift their hands in the air and shout "We are going to win!" The girls were very successful with a year record of fifteen wins and three losses. When asked if her ability to play basketball has improved from previous years Susie Spratt said, "My ability to play basketball has improved quite a bit in the last year." Asked what what was the most exciting game, Chris Heim quoted, "The most exciting game was when we played Field."

WE ARE NUMBER ONE!

"We're number one!" were the only words the Varsity Baseball team could find to describe themselves. (Without sounding conceited, of course!) Because coached by Scott Cantrell and Jim Fuller, the team finished with a 12-7-1 record overall and a 10-4 Surburban record, entitling them to share first place with Revere in the league.

What was the secret to such success? Robbie Holderbaum offered the answer, "Our season was so outstanding because it was fun!"

Robbie Snyder described the season by saying, "It was a very interesting, exciting season," then he added with a grin, "and I hope it will be that way next year!"

"I felt we had a lot of talent, but we had a few bad breaks," commented John Miller

The "bad breaks" must have been few and far between for the J.V.'s since they finished with a most successful 10 and 4 record. Coached by Dan Winkler, the team outscored their opponents 107 runs to just 76 runs

"I thought this year's J.V. team was full of fine athletes," stressed Tim Adkins. "We worked together well."

Taking a Swing at Things

According to Ron Pavlovich, "This year's team was very respectable. Although we finished near the bottom in the league, our overall record of 14-12 showed a great improvement from the past few years."

This year's team had a total of ten members consisting of 3 seniors, 3 juniors, 3 sophomores, and 1 freshman.

Mr. Miksch had this to say about the team, "Outside the league they did very well and as a team they showed much improvement."

The seniors on the team are Ron Pavlovich, a four year letterman, John Kulton, and Brad Hilty, both of whom are three year lettermen.

The juniors are Mike Baker, Rick Pastor, and Micky McLeod.

The sophomores are Shawn Reese, Joe Ruthenberg, and Eric Purton.

The only freshman on the team is Scott

Miksch. Mr. Miksch had this to say about being a father and a coach, "I think it is much harder on the player than it is on the coach."

Ron Pavlovich has been the top golfer for three years in a row, but this year it was very close between Ron and Mike Baker, both of whom received Honorable Mention All Suburban. John Kulton also received Honorable Mention All Suburban.

Improvement was the key factor for the Varsity and J.V. soccer teams. Both teams finished up on top of last year's standings with the Varsity's record 3-10-2 and the J.V.'s record 2-7-2. The coaches of the Varsity team were John Deuber and Dean Ruff while the coach of the J.V. team was Jim Bostic. The players were very pleased with their standings, and Junior Craig Calhoun stated, "The team was more aggressive this year and there was better ball control. There were few games that were out of our reach." Sophomore Joe Okolish, who was voted most valuable player added, "I think we improved 100% over last year. We had more team effort and we never let down through the year."

The team," said Senior Steve Lenos "has improved tremendously from the team of two years ago." Some of the people that could have helped the winning attitude of the soccer players were Jeff Irwin, who scored the most goals for the panthers, goalie Robbie Snyder, who played the best defense during the season, and Ardell Rice, who received the "coaches player" award.

Dave Loughborough successfully slide tackles the ball in a common defense play (right).

The Wrestling Experience

Top: One of Bob Cherok's less fortunate opponents finds out quickly why he was district champion.

Mark Flechler utilizes a reverse half nelson to acquire back points from his opponent and eventually the pinfall.

Coaches Dale Saylor and Barry Reighard oversee Mark Flechler's match during the second annual Norton dual meet tourney.

FRONT: S. Custer, M. Prillaman, G. Joseph, M. Burgner, M. Hose, B. Lee, D. Staats, B. Brown; ROW TWO: M. Tanski, A. Baughman, M. Patterson, D. Mehok, E. Newberry, M. Flechler, R. Woodcock, S. Walker; ROW THREE: Coach D. Saylor, Coach B. Reighard, Coach J. Boslic, B. Cherok, J. Hicks, R. Reese, M. Stump, J. Watts, Z. Gruch; ROW FOUR: J. Lohan, E. Spangler, B. Billinovich, T. Rossel, D. Rector, G. North, D. Druga, R. Wise, T. Heim.

The wrestling team had its share of stars. Senior Bob Cherok set a new high school record with 22 pins in one season. Senior Jay Hicks was one of the few wrestlers in his weight class to earn a qualifying spot for state competition. Even though the team was blessed with a lot of talent and a winning season of 11 wins and 9 losses, they felt that they could have done better. "I think the team could have worked much harder as a whole but there were a few individual efforts, but they were not whole-hearted efforts," said Eddie Newberry, winner of the team's "Most Takedown Award."

"We did not accomplish all that we were capable of—but, we were successful," reflected Coach Saylor. Finishing out the year with most team points was Jay Hicks. The captains were Mike Patterson and Rich Reese. The year's most improved wrestler was Mike Burgner.

Looking determined, Staci Goff waits for the pitch.

Starting off with a bang, the JV and Varsity softball teams had a terrific season. Missy Graham summed up the players' feelings by saying simply, "We were awesome!" The team's proved this with outstanding records of 11-2 and 18-5.

Varsity Coach Chaboudy said, "The team is not only good, but we also had a lot of fun."

The JV's wanted to finish off their season, but ran out of time due to the weather. Riki Antonotti bragged, "When we're seniors, they better watch out because we're going all the way!"

Lisa Paolucci grumbles, "I didn't want to swing at that one anyhow."

IN MEMORY OF GREG GARBINSKY

Silence

There is a silence about us now
The absence of words and reasons
It is the pain of not being able to understand
The sorrow of not believing

We are suffering a tragic loss
A friend has left us
We weep for him, for each other, ... for ourselves
In hope to relieve the sadness we share

He was a part of us
Because the life he lived touched ours in the past
And where in our futures we should have met him
We shall be the less fortunate ones for

Though death has its power to steal our friends
He shall remain alive in our memories
Survive in our hearts
And live forever in our deepest thoughts

And perhaps with time
The silence will not be so lonely

CLASS OF 88

"The Young Guys"

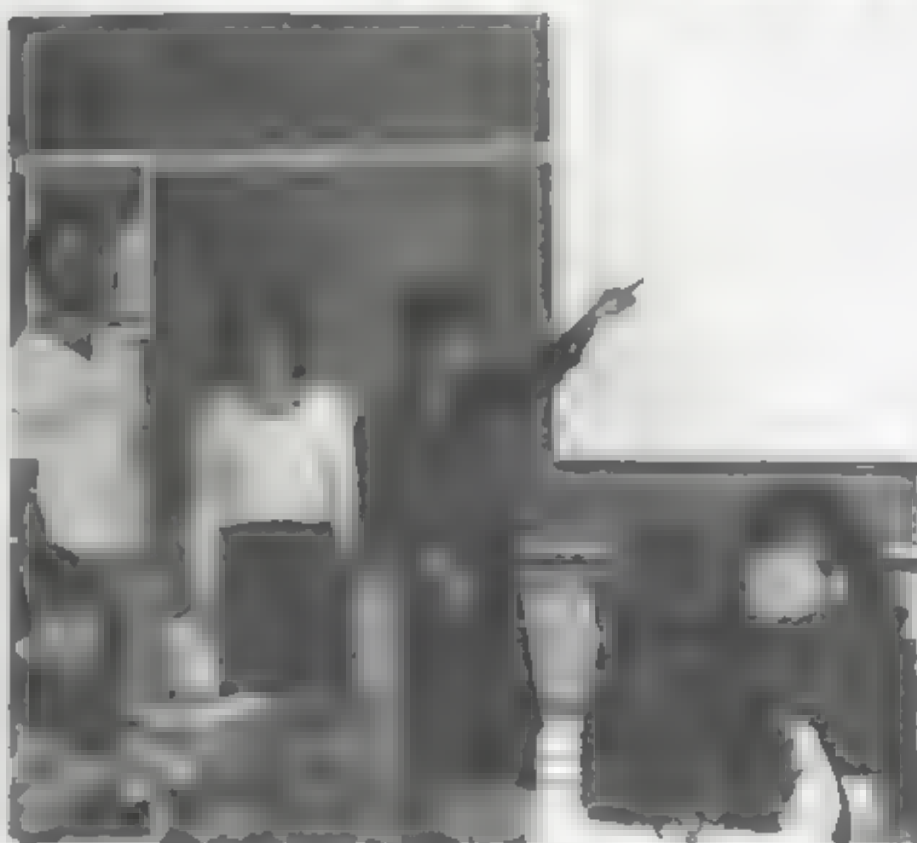

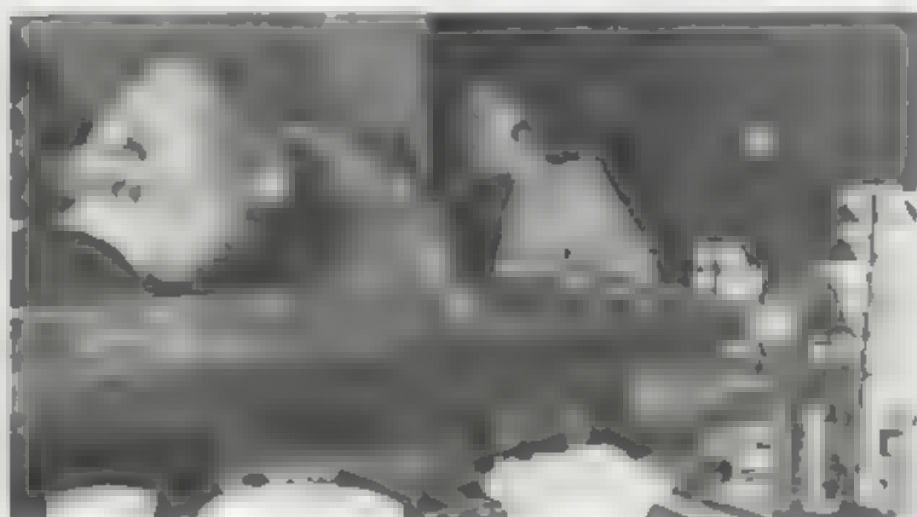

Below: "Look Ma! I gave my hair to C.A.R.E.," gins Mike Blazich. Mr. Russell smiles at Mike's reaction.

Adjusting to a new environment is tough enough, but being a freshman at N.H.S. is a real task. However, the survival rate seems to be tremendously high! "I really enjoyed my freshman year, the change of pace is unbelievable from Middle School and the guys really put life into the ordinary schoolday!" stated Tern Reyes. The high school students' freshman year will probably be the most memorable for some. "Since I've come to the big N.H.S. my life just hasn't been the same!" said Eric Spanger.

Scott Malsch explains Shakespearean golf to his English class. Class officers: Becky Woods, Jami Truesdell, Meredith Reese, and Sam Custer

Mike Rose utilizes his library time. The question is, "Is he studying, or snoozing?"

There's no question about this one. Mark Baker is snoozing, not studying.

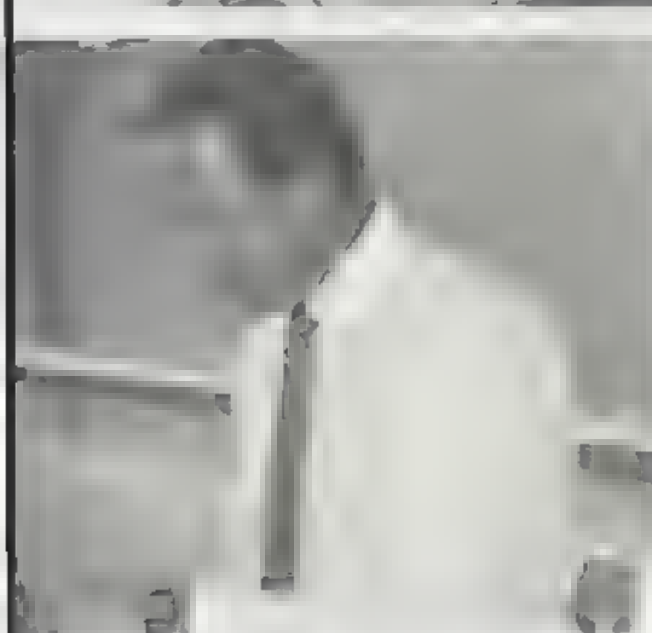

Laurie Miller tries to take notes in Mrs. Moon's class, but she's got other things on her mind.

STAFF

Bottom row: Mr. Saylor, Mr. Reighard, Mr. Sires, Mr. Chaboudy, Mr. R. Hannah, Mr. N. Hannah, Mr. Wilfong, Mr. Vaill, Mr. Vrabel;

Undercover Workers

Listen, what's that sound? It's the sound of jingling keys coming down the hall. This sign usually means our devoted custodian is on his way to save the day.

Next, culinary experts or cooks as we call them, work diligently to prepare a well rounded and appetizing meal. They greet with cheer that warms the heart.

The final addition to our fine running school are the administrative assistants. Their expertise ranges from addition through Xerox copies. Our secretary's are Mrs. Shamsky and Miss Oser; main office, Mrs. Cunningham; guidance office, Mrs. Goehler; athletic office, and Jill Easterling, Sherry Waters, Melony Yost, Laura Workman, and Tracy Flickinger. vocational office

ADMINISTRATION

Throughout the year, the "coaching staff" of principal Mr. Beddow and vice-principal Mr. Newenhisen have provided us with an effective educational program. Mr. Beddow said his main goal is to use his leadership and administrative skills to give us the best education possible

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS OF THANKS

We have dedicated this space for special thanks to those who contributed to this publication

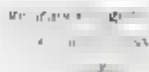

Administration—encouraging and supporting this publication of the NORTONIAN; Vicki Horricks—volunteering her secretarial services, Mr. Clemons—Art students—submitting designs for yearbook cover; Kathy Gabelman—designing yearbook cover Mr. Reighard—allowing us access to darkroom facilities; Tim Eames—development and printing photos when we couldn't Ms. Muffet, Torch Staff—supplying us with pictures we missed, Dan Blackburn—explaining the basics of 35 mm cameras and photography; Jim Barbour/ICP—helping us to meet deadlines and providing technical advise, Sylvart Studios—everything

A very special thanks goes to Ian and Barb Rosenthal and Sylvart Studios. In addition to technical advice, they provided us with photographic supplies, team and faculty pictures, action shots of varsity games, and candid of "special" events. Their cooperation with the staff contributed greatly to both the quality of the photographs and the low student cost of the yearbooks. A special thanks to Tom Scott who took pictures of our events for Sylvart Studio

Top right: Mr. Beddow takes a break from his busy day. Middle left: Mr. Newenhisen awaits his next victim. Bottom right: Below: Mr. Russell, Mr. Nutter, Mr. Seiberling, Mr. Bell, and Mr. Byrd, pose for a picture before another important board meeting. THIS, TOO, SHALL PASS AWAY

In times of trial, an old Indian legend has given me much comfort. A king, who suffered many hours of discouragement, urged his courtiers to devise a motto, short enough to be engraved on a ring, which should be suitable alike in prosperity and in adversity. After many suggestions had been rejected, his daughter offered an emerald bearing the inscription in Arabic: "This, too, will pass."

Said the poet

Whate'er thou art, where'er thy footsteps stray,
Heed these wise words. This, too, shall pass away
Oh, jewel sentence from the mine of truth!
What riches it contains for age or youth
No stately epic, measured and sublime,
So comforts, or so counsels, for all time
As these few words. Go write them on your heart
And make them of your daily life a part
Art thou in misery, brother? Then I pray
Be comforted! Thy grief shall pass away
Art thou elated? Ah, be not too gay
Temper thy joy, this, too, shall pass away
Fame, glory, place and power,
They are but little baubles of the hour
Thus, be not o'er proud,
Nor yet cast down; judge though a right,
When skies are clear, expect the cloud
In darkness, wait the coming light
Whatever be thy fate today,
Remember, even this, shall pass away!

To Becky!
 a really nice girl I met in 6th grade.
 remember that newspaper? Good luck in all, you do! Love, Mike

To Becky,
~~my~~ best friend that I've known for awhile and that I'm glad I became good friends with.
 I'll never forget the good times we had especially the time we went to Cedar Point and met those guys. Maybe we should have ~~met~~ ^{met} those I'm glad I can talk to you ~~about~~ ^{about} to. I know but sometimes I can be really grouchy ~~sometimes~~ ~~no one~~ is perfect. So forgive me for those times.
 I'll never forget my favorite movie I saw four or was it five times at your house and I'll never forget "Pieces". Never! How could I.
 Especially the best part of it. Oh, what about that time at the mall and we were looking at those one guys and well you know the rest.
 Never ever ever forget track season and the big jerk. Maybe someday I'll go out with this and give you ~~some~~ ^{someone} but I know you can still get someone without me. Someday I know you'll meet that special guy so I'll need it.
 even though you won't need it.

Becky:

To a really super girl I met in 7th(?) grade. We've really gotten closer over the years, and I'm glad, too! Remember all the fun in choir and Spanish, and also 8th & 9th grade track! Thanks for being such a sweetie!

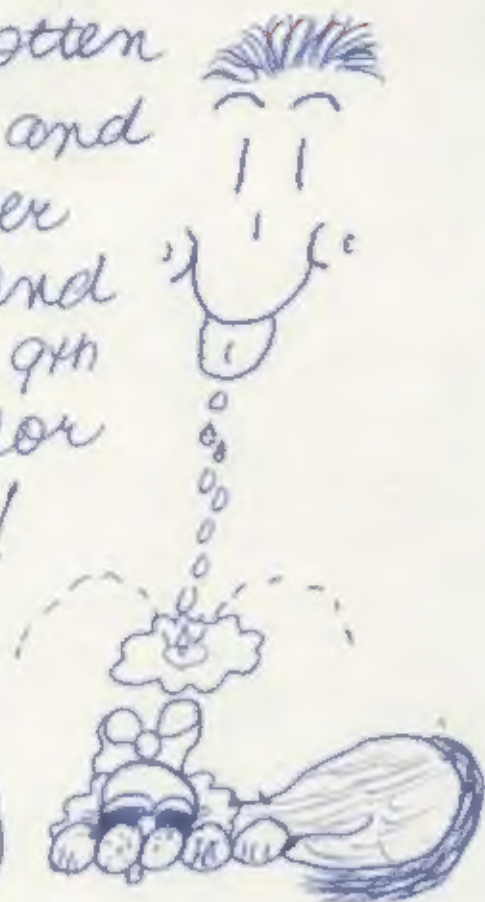

Love,

Meredith

88 rocks!

good luck in all you do! Hope you get that "special" guy! (L.L.?)
